

State-Specific Privacy Notes - California

Supplemental Privacy Notice for California Residents

This notice for California residents supplements the information contained in our Privacy Statement and applies solely to residents of the State of California. We adopt this Supplemental Notice to comply with the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (CCPA) and any terms defined in the CCPA have the same meaning when used in this Supplemental Notice. Under the California Consumer Privacy Act ("CCPA"), you have certain rights in relation to some of your personal data, including the right to certain disclosures and explanations of rights. This section explains your rights under California law.

California "Do not track" Disclosures

California law (CalOPPA) requires Intrinsic Therapeutics, Inc. ("Intrinsic") to let you know how we respond to web browser 'Do Not Track (DNT) signals'. Because there currently is not an industry or legal standard for recognizing or honoring DNT signals, we do not honor Do Not Track requests at this time.

California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018

Intrinsic collects information that identifies, relates to, describes, references, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular California consumer or household ("personal information").

Use or Disclosure of Personal Information

In the past 12 months, we have used or disclosed the personal information we collect for our operational purposes and for one or more of the following business purposes:

- To provide products and services to consumers
- To respond to consumer requests
- To improve and personalize consumer access to and experience on our website, for example, by telling consumers about new features, products, or services that may be of interest to them
- To develop records, including records of consumers' personal information
- To contact consumers with information that might be of interest to them, including information about clinical trials and about products and services of ours and of others
- For analytical purposes and to research, develop, and improve programs, products, services and content
- For activities to monitor and maintain the quality or safety of our products and services
- For activities described to consumers when collecting their personal information or as otherwise permitted under CCPA
- For U.S. healthcare providers, to link name, National Provider Identifier (NPI), state license number, and/or IP address to web pages they visit, for compliance, marketing, and sales activities
- To conduct audits and perform troubleshooting activities of our websites, products, and services
- To detect and protect against security incidents and deceptive, malicious, or fraudulent activity
- To ensure our website, products, apps, and services function as intended, including debugging and repairing
- To comply with a law or regulation, court order or other legal process

Rights under California Law

1. Right to Access. If you are a California consumer, you have the right to ask us to send you the following information up to two times in a twelve-month period:
 - The categories of personal data we have collected about you.
 - The categories of sources from which we collected the personal data.
 - Our business or commercial purpose for collecting personal data.
 - The categories of third parties with whom we share personal data.
 - What categories of personal data we disclose about you for business purposes.
 - What categories of personal data we sell or exchange for consideration about you.
 - The specific pieces of personal information we have collected about you.
2. Right to Delete. If you are a California consumer, you have the right to ask us to delete the personal data about you we have collected. We may deny the request if the information is necessary to:
 - complete a transaction, including providing a requested or reasonably anticipated good or service, or fulfill a contract between the consumer and Intrinsic;
 - detect and protect against security incidents, malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activity, or take against those responsible for such activity;
 - debug to identify and repair errors impairing intended functionality;
 - exercise free speech or another right provided for by law;
 - comply with the California Electronic Communications Privacy Act;
 - engage in research in the public interest adhering to applicable ethics and privacy laws where the consumer has provided informed consent;
 - enable solely internal uses reasonably aligned with the consumer's expectations based on the consumer's relationship with Intrinsic;
 - comply with a legal obligation; or
 - otherwise use the information internally in a lawful manner compatible with the context in which the consumer provided the information.
3. Right to Opt-out. If a business sells personal information to third parties, California consumers have the right, at any time, to opt out of the sale or disclosure of their personal information to third parties. Intrinsic does not sell personal information to third parties.

Right to non-discrimination. The CCPA grants California consumers the right not to be discriminated against for exercising your privacy rights. If you exercise your privacy rights, we will not discriminate against you, for example, by denying you access to our online services or charging you different rates or prices for the same online services, unless that difference is reasonably related to the value provided by your data.

Submitting a Request or Inquiry

If you are a California resident and you want to submit a request or inquiry to us regarding your California rights, you or your authorized agent can contact us at info@barricaid.com. We can only respond to your request if it is verifiable. This means we are obligated to take reasonable steps to verify your identity or your authorized agent's authority and your right to access the information you request. We may ask for additional information that will help us do so. We will only use that additional information in the verification process, and not for any other purpose. We do not charge a fee to process or respond to your verifiable consumer request unless it is excessive, repetitive, or manifestly unfounded. If we determine that the request warrants a fee, we will tell you why we made that decision and provide you with a cost estimate before completing your request.
